When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

MINING IN ARGENTINA.

MR. HOSKOLD'S REPORT.

We have received a copy of the report read by the Director General of Mines in Argentina before the annual Congress of Mining Engineers held last April at Newcastle-on-Tyne. It is a highly interesting pamphlet, to which are attached an excellent map of the republic and various plans of mining works and shafts. As Mr. Hoskold has devoted 8 years to the mines and mineral resources of Argentina we do not hesitate to say that this is the most important work yet published on the subject.

We venture to condense it as follows—

That the Aztecs and Incas worked the gold and silver veins up to the time of the Spanish conquest is proved by the discovery of extensive workings in some of the ancient mines, and the curious instruments and implements found in them.

The second great period is that of the Jesuits, who had a numerous body of Indians occupied in working the mines until the expulsion of the Order in 1767. There are at present 9 mining provinces and 7 mining territories, covering altogether an area of 731,000 sq. miles. The old Spanish Mining Law held force from 1771 to 1887, when a new Code was introduced, of a very obnoxious character. The legal area of a concession by this new Code is as follows—

	Acres.
Gold	24
Iron	30
Coal	44
Nitrate	247

In the provinces there are 2,000 concessions of all classes, and since 1886 about 1500 have been solicited from the National Government for minerals in the Federal territories.

Rioja. The Mexicana mines, in the Famatina range, are the best copper-mines in the republic and are situate 17,000 ft. over sea-level. Some samples have given a yield of 44 per cent of pure copper, and about 30 per cent of sulphur. The veins average from 18 to 26 inches thick, but in some places reach 48 inches. The ore is carried from a depth of 330 ft. to the surface upon boys' backs, although every facility exists for the formation of lateral galleries. The ore is then transported by pack mules for 3 days' journey to the lower levels. The average obtained from a lot of 937 tons of crude copper mineral was—

Copper	15 per cent
Silver	67 oz. per ton.

There are also many other copper mines in this province, the commercial value of which is not ascertained. The silver-mines of Rioja vary from 10,000 to 14,000 ft. over sea-level, at Cerro Negro, Tigre and Caldera. The old German rhyme holds good in this district:

"For a mine to be rich and fat
It must have an iron hat."

Nearly all the above mines consist at the surface of a ferruginous mass, but the iron decreases and the quartz increases as we go deeper. Samples from the Cerro Negro in 1881 gave:—

Silver	27 per cent
Iron	14 " "
Zinc	4 " "
Nickel	3 " "

The mine most worked at Cerro Negro is the Peregrina: the returns from 1873 to 1882 averaged 2¼ per cent, silver. San Miguel mine at the Tigre averaged not quite 1¼ per cent, from 1877 to 1882; the Caldera mines rather more than 1¼ per cent. Native silver has been found in masses at Cerro Negro, two samples bought by Mr. Hoskold for the Museum of Mines yielding 87 per cent of pure silver. Coal has been found at Paganzo in this province, and Prof. brackebusch considered that the field was of such extent as to supply the whole world. Samples shewed 65 per cent carbon. Four borings were made, but only thin bands of bituminous shale were discovered.

Catamarca. The principal copper-mines are at Capillitas in the north-east, where the Restauradora has been worked for 27 years to a depth of 1,000 ft.; large samples shew 20 to 30 per cent copper. A sample from the Hoyada mines (little worked) in the north-west of the province gave:—

Copper	11 per cent
Silver	183 oz. per ton.
Gold	10 " " "

This province possesses the largest smelting-works in the country, the establishment of Mr. Lafone Quevedo at Pilciao. The ore is conveyed thither from Capillitas by pack-mules in two days. Wood is used for fuel. The copper bars usually contain 90 per cent of copper metal, 200 to 300 oz. silver and 10 to 15 oz. gold. As a rule the ore from Capillitas yields 30 per cent of copper. There is a smaller smelting-establishment at Pipanaco, where the owner says that it takes 25 tons of fire-wood to reduce 15 tons of ore, the wood costing 40 pence English per ton.

Salta. This province is also noted for its copper mines. That of Chacabuco has been worked several years, samples shewing 48 per cent of copper and one per 1,000 of silver. San Antonio gave the following:—

Copper	40 per cent
Silver	0.57 "

Jujuy. There are several galena mines yielding silver, also gold mines that average half-an-ounce per ton, and some gold-washings. The Mendoza Petroleum Co. made two borings in Jujuy for petroleum, but without success.

Tucuman. The mountains in the western part contain many old mines, but the natives prefer growing sugar. The mining district runs northward from Capillitas, in Catamarca, and the following assays were reported in 1882—

Copper ore	38 per cent copper
Silver ore	18 to 25 " silver

The above are on the authority of a report published by the Government of Tucuman.

Cordoba. Copper and galena mines were worked on various occasions, but so badly managed (as in the Rara Fortuna mine) that they did not pay for working.

San Luis. This province was called El Dorado in the time of the Spaniards, but in modern days has not justified that epithet. The Carolina mines are best known. There are two English companies, with £26,000 and £10,000 respectively, of paid up-capital. Local statistics affirm that the gold mines yield 5 oz. of gold per ton of ore.

San Juan contains mines of gold, silver, copper; iron, lead and lignite. Copper samples yield from 9 to 44 per cent. of copper metal. A few mines of various kinds are worked on a small scale. The working of coal (properly lignite) proved a failure. Mr. Hoskold, however, thinks that San Juan will one day prove a great centre of mining industry.

Mendoza. The mountain districts possess copper, galena and other minerals. Samples of copper are found to yield 20 to 40 per cent of the metal, besides 1 per 1,000 of silver. Thin seams of bitumen have been found in many places, of no value, but a new coal-field near San Miguel is expected to give good results. Samples of this coal have been analysed by Dr. Kyle, Director of the Mint Assay, and found to have from 48 to 60 per cent of carbon, with a calorific power of 5,405. Some borings for petroleum, to a depth of 650 ft., were successful, and a 4½ inch iron pipe was laid down 22 miles, to the nearest railway station, where the petroleum was used as fuel for the engines.

Carbon	50 to	54 per cent
Coke	57 —	61 " "
Calorific	4,570 —	4,636 " "

This is supposed to be a continuation of the San Rafael coal-field. Concessions have, moreover, been taken out for working mines of gold, silver, copper, lead, petroleum and nitrate in this territory.

Santa Cruz. Gold has been frequently discovered along the coast of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego, the heavy seas washing up gold on the beach, and this has led to the belief that an immense quantity of the precious metal is deposited in the trough of the sea. In these days of engineering science, Mr. Hoskold says, it may not be found too difficult to carry on dredging experiments with this object.

Chubut. Gold washings have been discovered and exploring concessions granted.

Misiones. The mountainous part seems rich in minerals. It is known that the Jesuits had copper mines in this territory, and some companies have been formed to revive the old works.

Tierra del Fuego. Lignite exists in large quantities, of a superior kind, with 48 per cent. of carbon. It is believed that it might be utilized, and a coal station formed for steamers passing, in some sheltered inlet.

In the concluding remarks we find the following reference to the Romay iron mines:—

"A company has been formed to work these mines, in the province of Catamarca. It is a titanic ore, yielding 48 per cent of metallic iron. The Co. proposes to use charcoal in the blast furnaces, made from the wood on their estate. The mines have been under notice for several years, and a Government guarantee granted of 5 per cent per annum for 10 years on a capital of $1,000,000, but doubtless they will discover that a larger capital is necessary.

CATASTRAL PLAN OF THE PROVINCE.

It is now 30 years since the first map of this description of the Province of Buenos Ayres was executed by Mr. Peter Beare, who shortly afterwards perished in the America while endeavoring to save the ship and passengers. Had he lived there would not have been so long an interval in the publication of such a work. It is as necessary as a periodical census of the population, and ought to be carried out every ten years.

The present map is admirably done, shewing the name of owner and the dimensions of every estancia in the Province, fron Arroyo del Medio to the Rio Negro, and from the seaboard to the limits of the National territory of Pampa Central. There are more than 3,000 names, and one can see at a glance how the possessions of the principal Argentine and other families lie.

Land is the most tangible element of wealth, and here before us stretch out enormous territories bearing the names of Anchorena, Alvear, Acosta, Duffy, Duggan, Shennan, Unzué, Stegmann, Velez, Basualdo, Urquiola, Luro, Drysdale, Shaw and hundred of others. In point of extent the estates of many of our estancieros rival those of Prince Esterhazy. But we are far from regarding this fact with complacency. It is nothing short of a public danger, a curse of the most far-reaching and malignant effects. This same evil shook Rome to her foundations, and has been in every stage of human history a menace and a calamity.

It is impossible to pass a law that no man shall hold more than 100 sq. leagues (that is 1,000 sq. miles) of land. But it would be advisable to impose an extra Land-tax on every property over 10 sq. leagues, which might help to break up the enormous estates on the map before us.

The provincial department of engineers deserves the warmest praise for the manner in which the map is executed. It is not only ornamental and useful for a merchant's or other office, but equally valuable to estancieros. Let us hope that the department will send copies to some of the principal public institutions of Europe and North America. We may suggest especially the British Museum, the R. Geographical Society, London, and the Royal Scottish Geographical Society, Edinburgh.

RIO GRANDE.

THE ROUND HEADS OF BAGE.

TRADE AND POLITICAL PROSPECTS.

Rio Grande, Aug 6th.

I wrote you a long letter last month giving you all the particulars of the late revolution or rather 'coup-d'etat', bombardment of P. Alegre, etc., but have failed to see it appear in the STANDARD, so presume it miscarried as so many letters to and from here do, getting lost in Montevideo or Rio Janeiro. In fact Rio Grande, splendid province or rather state as it is, will never be of much account until we have a proper port. The Rio Grande Bar is well known to be one of the most dangerous and freights and insurance are consequently proportionately high. The transhipment in Rio and long delays are fatal to any direct trade with Europe. The State has an area of 94,000 square miles and 970,000 inhabitants, whilst the exports for 1888 only reached £1,500,000 or 30 shillings per head, of which three fourths were accounted for by the products of the saladeros. Since that date the exports have probably diminished in value and volume.

The Central Government long ago projected the improvement of this port, and for this purpose Sir John Hawkshaw and the Dutch Engineer Calland reported on the possibilities of improvement. A contract was signed with a French Company, Les Travaux Publics, but as yet nothing has been done, [as the Brazilian idea of what they desire does not seem to be very clearly defined, and what government or minister does his success or undoes according to the caprice or peculiar political tenets he may hold. In consequence the French company decided to abandon the contract and lose their outlay of about £100,000, but at the last moment a change of ministry in Rio has brought about a change of policy and there now seems some prospect of the works being continued. The fact is there is a strong feeling in Rio against the works being carried out at all, as many believe that the construction of a good port here would make the State of Rio Grande too independent and would be another nail in the coffin of the Union, but for this the port would have been put to rights long ago.

I see by your last number that a little excitement has been got up in Montevideo about some of the revolutionary troops crossing into Uruguay and rifling some shops, and that the subject was assuming an alarming international aspect, which created great excitement here and in Porto Alegre. All I can say about is that we were in blissful ignorance of the facts

After Tavares disbanded his troops in Bagé and fled to the Banda Oriental, the Castillista Gefe Pedroso wished to lead his gauchos of whom he had 400 to 500, recruited from the scum of the State and Banda Oriental, to Bagé, having promised as a condition of enlistment three day's sack of that town, if successful. In this he was prevented by the surrender of the town to the Federal forces. The gauchos turned rusty, and Pedroso, after protesting that the action of the authorities in preventing him from keeping his promise had demoralized his authority, ran off to Porto Alegre, leaving his precious gang to manage for themselves, which they did by sacking all the estancias of the opposite party and a few camp-stores. Last Sunday they threatened to invade and sack Pelotas and caused great alarm for a few hours. It is a pity they did not attempt it, as they would have had a warm reception.

I see that Dr. Cassal is reported to state that there is a strong party here desirous of annexation to the Banda Oriental, of which Silveyra Martinez forms part. I cannot even believe that Dr. Cassal, who is an intelligent if too impulsive man ever made, such a statement, as I have failed to discover, during many years' acquaintance with Rio Grande, a single person who expressed such a wish or opinion. The fact remains disguise, it as you will, that between Brazilians and Orientals or Argentines a great gulf exists, the former hating and fearing the gauchos as they term the people of the River Plate, who in their turn despise the Brazilians. Besides their exists such an immense difference in habits, tastes and ways of thinking, that such a fusion could never exist long; whilst for fiscal reasons the union of Rio Grande with a bankrupt State such as Banda Oriental would be utter ruin and folly. What possible advantages could accrue to Rio Grande from such an union it would be hard to say.

For defensive purposes, they are strong enough to protect themselves should they at some date separate from Brazil both against Brazilians or Orientals.

In trade no advantage could accrue, as the port of Montevideo could only serve a very small district to the south of the province, its distance from other ports being too great to compete with water carriage via Rio Grande and Uruguayana.

There could be little or no interchange of products, as the two countries produce more or less the same; but a very serious injury would be inflicted on Rio Grande trade by the practical extinction of the saladeros, which only "exist" apparently thanks to the existence in Brazil of heavy import duties on charque, which enables the Rio Grandenses, in spite of heavy freights and all the disadvantages of their harbour, to compete with their River Plate rivals. The primary indisputable fact that has determined and will continue to determine the existence of Rio Grande as a limb of the Brazilian Republic remain, that its "only" markets for its "produce" are to be found in the North of Brazil and Rio Janeiro, and that these markets will only continue available so long as Rio Grande products are protected by duties against those from the River Plate, which will "cease to be the case" the moment the State become either independent or be annexed to Banda Oriental. Nine tenths of Rio Grande exports are consumed by Rio Janeiro and the North. Without these markets Rio Grande's occupation would be gone, and the State rapidly relapse into savagery, raising cattle to sell at vile prices at Montevidean and Oriental saladeros.

For the present, everything here is quiet; though it is said that the political pot has been set effervescing again in Rio by the question of court martial of Captain Lara, who bombarded Port Alegre, it being demanded by the President and other Ministers, and opposed by the Minister of Marine and navy. It is, undoubtedly, in this direction, a serious split between army and navy, that we must expect the final grand row that will lead to a civil war, such as we lately saw in Chile, and final bursting up either of the Union or the Republic.

Financial affairs are going from bad to worse, with Exchange at 10d., and the liquidation only just commencing; there are bad times in store for poor Brazil.

The amount of swindling in Rio during the boom exceeded anything yet heard of, even in the Argentine Republic; fortunately the European capitalists closed their pockets just in time, so that the brand new Brazilian Republic was not able to increase its foreign obligations, in spite of a very strong inclination, and was thus saved from itself by the very people they are now so fond of calling the "Jews of the City."

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The town of Las Flores according to our invaluable provincial exchange, the Dia, is one of the most attractive in the province of B. Ayres. It pleases you at first sight, and that is already a great thing, as provincial towns have not generally a prepossessing appearance. The district of Las Flores covers an area of 110 square leagues, and the population is 10,000. The town comprises 91 blocks, and the streets are straight, wide, and weell-kept. The Municipal revenue amounts to $42,000. There is a very nice plaza, resembling that of Chivilcoy., that is it is quite a park, displaying all the pleasant features of an English garden with lawns and picturesque mounds. There is a fine stand for the local Music band, and then there is a beautiful fountain. The public buildings around the plaza are very fine edifices; amongst others is the church, which cost two million dollars, which will give a fair idea of its size. The town was founded in 1856. The Provincial Bank branch occupies a fine building on the plaza. The branch is at present under the management of Mr. Freire. When he took over the management of the concern, the portfolio contained bills to the amount of $1,700,000. Mr. Freire has been able to realize nearly the entire amount, the bills in the portfolio being to-day only $120,000, and of this sum only $15,000 can be considered doubtful. The deposits are increasing, a circumstance that proves the great confidence in the branch.

Fine Cattle	No.	56,000
Sheep	"	29,000
Horses	"	7,000
Surne	"	250
Hides	"	16,000
Sheepskins	"	54,500
Wool	Lbs.	1,352,000
Wheat	Tons.	155
Maize	"	5,116
Hay	"	900

Besides minor quantities of other staples, which place Las Flores in the very first rank of provincial towns in the South. The revenue of the district is as high as that of any of the other districts in the province.

"Colonial expansion" is in full swing in Santa-Fe. Fresh colonies are being started every week up there, in spite of the lawless condition of affairs and the numerous outrages of daily occurrence, which make both life and property so insecure. We note in an exchange that two new colonies have been started within the last few days, one, called Ana, in the district of San Cristobal and the other Carmen in the department of General Lopez. The founders are Luis de Abreu and Carmen Alvear de Christophersen.

We note, moreover, in the same exchange, that the Committee of Legislature of the local Chamber of Deputies have reported favorably on Mr. Schoord's project for building 500 and odd miles of steam-tramway through the colonies. One of the conditions of this project is that the concessionaire must put up telegraph-lines along the tramway.

Telegrams received from Salta last evening state that the local Chamber of Deputies have decided that Mr. Guemes reimburse the province the commission of $118,000, which he collected for making certain financial arrangements for the provincial Government.

ESTUDIANTES DE BOLOGNE.

(Communicated.)

"Oh native music beyond compare the sweetest sound that the ear can hear." So says the good old English ballad; but Argentines appear to think otherwise, neglecting the best efforts of our really clever native composer Señor Don Francisco Hargreaves, or as his admirers love to call him, the Argentine Mozart.

Is this right? Is this fair or patriotic? By no means. Witness the honors that we pay to Gilbert and Sullivan's compositions all the world over. Or take Germany's homage to the genius of Wagner and Mendelhson. Even Brazil has got her Gomez; and why should not Argentina revere the fame of Francis Hargreaves?

It is now close on 20 years since this clever gentleman then in the morning of life came home from Italy, where he had been studying under the best masters, and where his budding talents were duly prized. His first effort, "Una gatita blanca," was produced at the dear old Victoria Theatre in the year 1875, and it is not too much to say that the debut of the young composer was brilliant in the extreme.

As regards the present work, which is Mr. Hargreaves's latest effort, the plot is taken from Dumas's fantastic novel by our clever local dramatist Señor Menchaca, and those who had the pleasure of being present at the rehearsal the other evening in the author's house are loud in their praises of its rare artistic merits.

In a few days this gem of harmony will be produced at the National Theatre.

Parnasse.

VENEZUELA.

Latest advices from Venezuela indicate a very serious condition of affairs in that unhappy Republic. It is just possible that by this time matters have been straightened out, but when the C. G. T. steamer Versailles left the coast on the 4th they were in an indeed serious way. The situation had not been bettered by a manifesto issued by ex-President Palacio from Martinique, in which he vigorously denounces the present Government as a military triumvirate acting in the name of Villegas, and attributing all the category of political and moral crimes to his successors, ending with a prognostication of the speedy triumphant entry of Crespo into Caracas.

From the date of the flight of Palacio up to that of our present advices, there had been a series of sharp and more or less important military operations on both sides, with varying success, the ultimate indications being decidedly in favor of the Crespists who, were slowly advancing on the city, and expected almost daily to make the final assault. This near proximity to the city with its inevitable impending 'decisive' battle however, has been told more than once before, and as Crespo had not yet completely overcome his opponents, or they him, we scarcely feel justified in indulging the hope that the deplorable trouble is yet altogether over.

There had been some very heavy fighting between the main bodies of the Government forces and of Crespo's advance columns. The latter had been driven from villages and entrenchments, and retired into the mountain passes. Thence, however, they appear to have suddenly emerged at dead of night and in the midst of a thunderstorm, and fallen upon the camp of the enemy, almost annihilating the left wing. The Crespists were stripped to the waist and greased, and fought in the darkness with instructions to machette every man having on a shirt! The slaughter is described as having been frightful, few escaping the murderous onslaught of the furious llaneros—we say 'murderous' advisedly, for this sort of thing cannot be recognized or described as 'warfare.' Amongst the slaughtered was the Government General who was in command of the left. At daylight the whole available forces of the Crespists threw themselves on the right, commanded by the General Monagas in person, and after sustaining a prolonged and vigorous battle it was driven back towards the city.

Monagas had issued an urgent call for reinforcements, and the authorities of Caracas had hurriedly conscripted the flower of the youth of the city and sent them to the front. There were no trained troops left who could be sent from the capital. To procure provisions for the army, warehouses, stores, and even residences had been sacked right and left by the police and troops, and gaunt famine decidedly had the lead of Crespo. Meat and flour had already attained fancy prices, and the very necessaries of life were becoming rarer than the luxuries at ordinary times.

The Finance Minister attempted to raise a forced loan off the foreign merchants, but these to a man flatly refused to be mulcted, sealing their safes and placed them under Consular protection. Of course business was at a standstill—there was neither buying nor selling, and, as our correspondent writes: "Caracas the gay and 'chic' is to-day like the enchanted city in the Arabian Nights A deathlike quiet prevails; doors, and windows even, are barred: the marhets and parks are closed, and no one is to be seen on the streets anywhere save soldiers and policemen. In an hour's walk that took in the principal thoroughfares of the city I did not meet a dozen men not in uniform." — Panama Star and Herald.

RAILWAY NEWS.

The N. R. Board have advised the contractors of the San Cristobal-Tucuman Railway to make certain corrections in the names of several stations on that line.

The Board of Public Works have issued a report on an application filed by the Pacific Railway for authority to widen the track at Palermo. The Board advise the Government to decide nothing until Congress adopt some general resolution on the subject of access to the Port, Central-Station etc.

The following statements of traffic returns during the month of June are taken from official sources:—

The kilometrage of the North West Argentine in July was 445,542 against 416,995 in July 1891.

The kilometrage of the Rosario Railway in July was 5,704,868 against 4,014,000 in July 1891.

The local Boards of the Bahia Blanca and North Western Railway and of the Villa Maria and Rufino Railway have asked Government to pay the National interventors their salaries due for 1891 and deduct the amount from the guarantees—in other words to give retroactive effect to the recent decision of the Government to pay the interventors and deduct the amount from the guarantees.

The Chairman of the National Railway Board has asked the Government to allow the Manager of the Central Northern Extensions to build a small branch of five kilometres from Rosario de la Frontera to the Thermal Baths, provided the State be not asked to defray the cost.

CONGRESS.

THE DEPUTIES.

Deputy Gilbert took the chair at 3 p.m.

A petition from several colonists in Chubut that the Grumbein contract should be annulled was received.

Also a project to reform the Organic Muuicipal Law of this city. Deputy Alcobendas spoke on the matter in his usual eloquent way, and proposed that the Lord Mayor should be named by the Town Council. The Bill was sent to Committee.

Several Deputies proposed that Government should buy the rest of the works of the late Secretary Frias on the Legislatures of 1810 to 1826. Approved in general and particular.

A Bill to allow free import for five years of a material for making buttons was passed, in favour of a Mr. Acquistapace.

The Grumbein contract then took the floor and Deputy Castro "informed." Deputy Gonnet answered him in mellifluous terms and, after a long speech, proposed that a Committee be named to report on the Santa Cruz and Chuput Territories.

The Minister of the Interior spoke in defence of the contract, regretting that he could not give explanations in a public sitting.

Deputy Gonnet advised him to ask for a secret sitting.

The Minister replied that the long dates given for payment were necessary to allow the land to be surveyed.

At 6.30 the debate was adjourned till Monday next.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The no steamer nuisance is beginning again and must be cut short before it becomes chronic. The Lusitania's passengers for this city, like those of the Liguria last week, had to remain a night at Montevideo, and there were no mails yesterday, owing to this sudden revival of an abuse that used to make people tear their hair out some years ago. We call on the popular Prefect General of Ports to take the river companies in hand "pro bono publico."

Lomas has always been green, and has of late become addicted to gaiety. We note another very attractive entertainment announced to come off there this day week, in connection with the local Athletic Club.

The air is full of rumours of official resignations, as always happens at the close of a Presidential term. The latest on the cards is that of Dr. Donovan, Chief of Police. This will be a great loss to the public, as the city has never had a better chief of police.

Revolution in Cordoba!! All the butchers there closed their stalls the other day and refused to pay any taxes. Not even a scraggy mutton chop was to be had for its weight in shinplasters. Finally the Minister of Government became so hungry that he ordered the stalls to be broken open by force, and business was resumed.

Many English residents are anxious to see answers to the questions put by "Vox" in our issue of the 25th inst, in reference to the British Cemetery; and as it is a matter of public interest to a large portion of our community, we suggest that the Cemetery Committee should reply to our correspondent.

In reply to "un curioso" we beg to say that the foundation stone of the city is laid at the corner of the Plaza Victoria and Calle San Martin. It was formerly fully exposed to view till a heavy cart smashed it: then an iron plate was put over it. It is now, perhaps, covered by the wooden pavement, or perhaps long since removed.

We have received a Circular from Messrs. Hugh Williams and Company Cordoba, by which we see that they have rented the Stations and coaches of the Cordoba and North Western Railway, for the purposes of advertising. As the line opens up an entirely new section of the country we should think that they are right in asserting that it gives exceptional advantages as a cheap advertizing medium.

The Belgrano Tramway is laudably anxious to please the public: and the manager begs us to invite the "Lover of Horses" who wrote to us yesterday about a change in the harness in order to relieve the horses, to call at the Centro Ameriaa station to-day, before noon, to see his suggestion acted upon. Unless he calls to-day he will be late, as the new contrivance will have to be removed for to-morrow's traffic. We may add that the trials already made have not given satisfactory results; quite the contrary.

Weather fine in London yesterday. This pleasing meteorological intelligence came direct, via Lisbon, to the R.P.T.C. in a quarter of an hour.

"Impenitents" is the name of the latest political party. There are now no fewer than eight political parties in the field, according to an influential morning colleague who knows.

The Columbus Fete Committee have offered a prize for a Hymn suitable for the occasion. The competition will be confined to the Italian Professors of music in the city; and as they are all very clever something good may be looked for. The words have been written by Dr. Guido Barra and are soul-stirring.

Mackern and Shine are determined to be to the fore as accommodating News Agents. Vide their tempting offers in another colum.

The Cordoba City Fathers have resigned "en masse" and are packing their trunks for a trip to Heliers, where Governor Pizarro strongly advised them to go the other day.

"Una vieja maestra de escuela" who happens to have no certificate, as such useless trumpery was unknown when she started in the teaching business ever so many years ago, writes to a morning colleague giving Inspector General Fitzsimons a considerable piece of her mind, for ferreting out the fact that half the teachers in the State schools are in her case, without certificates, while those who have the latter are out at elbows for want of somebody to teach. The irate old lady tells the Inspector not to poke his nose into what does not concern him and to mind his own business. This, dear Madam, is exactly what the zealous official is doing so vigorously.

The following sketch of Lord Rosebery, by Mr. A. W. Lucy, is very interesting at the present moment:—"Lord Rosebery shares Mr. Gladstone's dual gift, being a habile speaker and a tireless worker. He resembles the late Lord Granville in his lightness of touch and his felicity of language, whilst he excels him in the brilliancy of his wit. What measure of preparation Lord Rosebery bestows upon his more important speeches is his secret. They are too weighty in matter, too polished in style, to be "knocked off" at a quarter of an hour's notice. But Lord Rosebery has the art to conceal his art, and no one looking and listening whilst he quietly, often without assistance from notes, delivers a speech that charms the audience listening at the doors, suspects the study of Demosthenes or the re-writing twenty times of a carelessly-dropped yet perfect sentence."

No more steamers from Havre or Hamburg for some time. The Health Board has resolved to declare both ports infected, and all the ports of France and Germany as "sospechosos."

According to our time-honoured custom we warn all skippers of vessels in port to overhaul their cables and anchors, as Santa Rosa may swoop down on them suddenly and make them skip unpleasantly. She is due on Tuesday next, but often arrives a few days before or after her own day, the 30th inst.

Government has ordered the National Contaduria to credit the Post Office with $1,149,000, the amount of stamps and other Postal values burned by decree of 26th of April last.

In answer to the enquiry of "A constant subscriber" at Lezama, we beg to say that steamers arrive here from Europe nearly every day in the month, and they nearly all bring mails. By reading the STANDARD carefully every morning on an empty stomach our esteemed correspondent can keep himself as "au courant" with incoming mails as if he had all the news agencies in town at his elbow.

Mr. Thomas Anchorena was swindled out of $2,000 the other day by an enterprising Knight of Industry who dressed himself in a midshipman's uniform and went round soliciting subscript

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind." It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this!"

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, August 26th 1892.

Gold ruled weaker than yesterday, but a firm under-current was visible in the speculation. A more hopeful view is generally taken of the political situation and the belief is gaining ground that the President-elect may be induced to take over the reins of power this month and allow the actual President to retire from his thorny and dangerous position. Meantime, gold, although at a slightly lower level, continues steady, and many are afraid that a heavy shortage is looming ahead.

Thirteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $53.60, fell to $53.30, but closed with a hardening tendency at $53.40, say 228.41% premium. A few hundred sovereigns were sold at $16.55 and $16.60, say 229.36% premium. As the month's settlement is approaching increasing activity may be expected in the speculation, but we do not believe that this month's engagements amount to much.

Patriotic Bonds are dead-and-alive; a few thousand changed hands at 71.90 to 71.70, closing at 71.80. Internal Bonds were not much dealt in; prices closed at 67.70 for cash, and 31st inst, and 68.30 for end of September.

Six thousand Catalinas changed hands at steady prices; the rate for cash opened at 11, fell to 10.90, rose to 11.20, and closed at 11. The price for the end of September closed at 11.40. Four hundred old Gas Shares were sold at 86-86 50 and 87. Obligaciones opened at 1.50 and closed at 1.40. Municipal Consols were steady at 59.90. National Cedulas A gold were quoted at 32.50 gold. Banco Inmobiliario were quoted at 18, La Plata Cedulas were firmer all round, but there are heavy sellers for end of September, no doubt for foreign account.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank were quoted at 36.50 to 37% discount; those of the National Bank at 21% discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were in demand at 20% of their face value.

Mr. H. L. Green, agent of the R.M.S. Company, writes to us that the steamer Magdalena left La Plata on 4th inst, one day behind time, and nearly one month after the Rosales storm, that there were never any fears as to her safety, that the sea was as smooth as a millpond all the way up to Southampton, and finally, that after calling at the numerous ports on her usual route she reached Southampton after 21 days' steaming, which is a feat indeed, considering her numerous ports of call. Mr. Green's letter is in answer to a paragraph in this column in which, whilst recording the arrival of the Magdalena, with Mr. Anderson on board, at Southampton, we stated "this will be welcome news to his large circle of friends who were most nervous about this steamer and the Rosales storm."

Mr. Manuel S. Lee has begged from the Government the lease of a site on fiscal ground fronting the South Basin of the port, to erect a Kiosque.

The Minister of the Interior has informed the managing committee of the City Improvement Works that the Government has issued orders, in accordance with decree of 20th June last and with plans already approved, to begin the works to strengthen and guard the Riachuelo sypbon. It appears that these works are not included in the original plans drawn up with the constructing company, but they are considered necessary and must be carried out. The estimates of their cost are $297,000%. The company very naturally object to this extra work, which is not included in their contract, and cannot undertake to spend such an amount of money. The company will probably carry out the works, but the expense will have to be met by the committee; at least, this is the most plausible view of the question.

The Annual Fair and Cattle Show in Mercedes will be held on the 4th to the 8th of September next. The usual reductions will be made on the freight of animals and products, which should be consigned to the President of the Sociedad Rural y Industrial de Mercedes. Besides, excursion fares will be established for the first time for those who wish to visit the place on the above days.

Immediately after the first ring an auction was called and Mr. Fariña sold 250 shares of the Minera Industrial Company at 4 and 3¼. Mr. Tarigo sold also at auction one hundred shares of the Credito Real Bank at 32½.

Mr. Arlt, of the South of Cordoba, where he manages Mr. E. Schroeder's fine estancia, was welcomed to-day. He reports camps in that district in good condition, a favorable season and good prospects.

Messrs. Williams and Co. have chartered the following vessels during the month:—

"Bq Remittent to load at Roca Mules for Demerara at £4 per head landed.

"Bq Akerhjelm to load hay in Rosario at $2.75.

"Bark Gloria to load grain at La Plata for Channel for orders at 16s.

"Bark Aeronaut to load flour and hay at Boca for Rio de Janeiro at $2.90 and 2.50 respectively.

"Bark Remittent to load lumber in Pensacola for Buenos Ayres at $13.75.

The Caja de Conversion handed to-day to the Board of the Banco de la Nacion six millions more on account of the capital account of the Bank, which now amounts to 24 millions out of the nominal fifty millions. It strikes the market that the capital account of the Bank is making very rapid strides and implies fresh issues of paper money.

Some political manifestations took place in the Bolsa to-day and gave rise to some play and merriment among the members. Invitations are going round inviting the public to join the procession organized in honour of the President-elect. The majority of bankers and merchants view with favour the advent of Dr. Saenz Peña.

Telegrams from Antwerp announce that the wool sales closed with small attendance and dull demand. Prices remained unaltered, but about half the quantity of wool offered had to be withdrawn.

Business at the produce market was very dull this morning, owing to the heavy rain. Affairs were very calm.

The gold market ruled very weak at the second ring: nine thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at 53.40$, fell steadily and closed at 53$, say 225,65% premium. Nothing was done in sovereigns Patriotic Bonds were firm at 71.90 for to morrow and 72.40 for end of September. Internal bonds were dull at 67.70. Catalinas were active and firm, closing at 11,30 for to-morrow. Municipal Consols fell to 59,60. Obligaciones were steady at 1.50 and Banco Constructor at 4.80. Banco de Comercio shares were sold for the end of the month at 90. La Plata Cedulas were very dull but firm.

The quickest business done in Montevideo for a long time is the new loan law, which was passed through both houses of legislature between night and morning; authorising the Government to make a loan for 5,000,000 dollars gold at 8S, with 5% interest and 1% amortization. The whole operation was done so quietly by President Herrera that it came on the Montevidean market as a most agreeable surprise. The oldest inhabitant of Montevideo confesses that nothing of the kind was ever known in that market. The depression was general, business at a complete stand still, the streets deserted, half the shops and business places of the town shut up, everyone dejected; when suddenly the whole scene changes and a new life is put into everything, by this rapid loan law, which we understand was passed to conclude a loan contract already entered into by the Montevidean Government. The beneficent influence of this new loan is already seen, since the Bolsa shows new life and stocks are improved in value. Something was certainly needed to lift Montevideo out of the crisis into which it had fallen, and let us all hope that Montevideo has now turned the corner and will improve.

The robbery on board the vessel at the Dry sdale Wharf in the Boca, which we published in our last, was even more daring than the attack on Mr. Williams in his own office but a few days previously. Some steps must be taken by the authorities to repress the rising crime in this city. One day we have all the valuable pictures of a man's house walked off with and no trace of the pictures or the robber to be found. Another day we have a gentleman sitting in his office, in the very heart of the city, in broad daylight, attacked by a man who offers to sell him Havannah cigars, who strikes him with a slungshot between the two eyes and then sacks the safe of its contents and leisurely leaves the office. Now we have a still more daring outrage, the brigands going on board a vessel in the Boca with cocked revolvers, hunting the crew under the hatches and taking away from the vessel 105 rolls of wire. The only suprise to us is that the ruffians did not clear out with the ship. Such daring outrages were never before known in Buenos Ayres, and suggest the existence of combined action by a gang of banditti that defies the police.

The great movement in real estate which has sprung up within the last couple of months continues, and scarcely a day passes that we have not to report some very large transaction. Advices received from Tucuman yesterday announce the sale of a very large and valuable property in that province; a property covering an area of 20 square leagues with 300 squares of sugar cane and magnificent mines or forest sold for the round sum of 1,000,000 dollars. Messrs. Padilla Hnos. are the buyers and Messrs. Guzman and Co. are the sellers. Our Tucuman colleague says that this is the largest sale that has been effected in that province for many years. Another very important land sale in the partido of Puan in this province is also reported; the estancia is known by the name of Guezzales; 84 square leagues all wire fenced, with fine estancia house and puestos and a large yeguada; for round sum of $440,000. Messrs. Dorrego and Sons buyers, Messrs. Robinson Frias and Monsegur sellers. And in the Contribucion Directa office in this city we have the following sales reported:—

Calle Juncal 1368-96 15.60 metres front by 50.50 deep, for $37,000.

Calle Bermejo 1248.50 8.66 metres front by 18,52 deep; $15'000.

Calle Salta 471, 8.45 metres front by 60.40 deep, $20,030.

Calle Salta 465, 6 metres front by 60.40 deep, $14,200.

Calle Moreno 1815, 7.57 metres front by 60.62 deep, $15,000.

The block divided by calles Brazil, Progreso, Matheu and Alberti, comprising 123 metres NW.; 121.63 on the S.E. 121.03 on the N.E., 115.80, SW: price $36,000.

Calle Ayacucho 1249, 7.30 metres front by 21.65 deep, $12,000.

The bell has at last tolled its funeral dirge over the remains of the unfortunate Banco de la Bolsa. At the meeting it was decided to screw down the coffin lid on the once famous enterprise. The testamentaria will give 15 or 20% to the shareholders, upon which the chief mourners will collect 1½% commission. At one time deceased had $6,000,000 of capital, which in the burning vicissitudes of the market was quietly reduced to a little over $2,000,000. The grave never closed over a more lamented Bolso illusion. Scarcely a man who stands round the ring that does not weep inwardly at this financial funeral. All that speculation, bolsa genius, monthly differences and handsome cauciones could give, did not save this bank from its fate, and as the liquidation of the crisis proceeds 500 other such funerals await the inevitable hour.

Minister Hansen's visit to Rosario has, as we anticipated, been productive of great good. H. E. went over the custom house, inspected the offices and inquired into complaints which were daily made in the papers. The result is that he has named Don Bermidio Latorre interventor in the custom house, who will proceed to reorganize the whole concern. As regards the port works and the rescinding of S. Canals' contract, there is a good deal said on both sides of the question, and many parties insist that Canals should be made to conclude his contract, and his syndicate of friends who are with him in the business be made responsible for the default. On the other hand it is observed that he can never carry out his contract and that he should account to the Government for all the money he collected for port and wharf dues since the year 1888. The commercial public both in Rosario and here have the fullest confidence in the rectitude of the Minister of Hacienda, and that whatever is best for the interests of Rosario and for the Government will guide him in his action in this rather difficult question.

Advices from the Santa Fe colonies continue to be most favourable Places that we never heard of before now turn out to be thriving colonies, and we must all admit that in no part of the Republic is there so much going on as in Santa Fe. There is a new colony called Crispi, which was started by Don Felipe Brusolasco, in a camp called Las Limpias, belonging to two Englishmen. This is a very new colony, and last year had only one house of business and with very little land ploughed up. Now it has 15 large stores where the colonists are supplied with everything, even to agricultural implements, machines and so forth. The whole country around is ploughed and sown, and even to the horizon the young wheat is shooting up. There have been no locusts in the district and the colonists are in the very best spirits. In almost every colony one meets now commercial travellers for Rosarian and Buenos Ayrean houses, and they all have their books well filled with orders and seem to be doing a roaring business.

El seguro contra incendio es un resguardo contra una posibilidad; el seguro sobre la vida lo es contra una certeza. Los incendios pudieran ocurrir, pero la muerte tiene que llegar. Todo hombre previsor se preve por ambas conveniencias.
Presérvese la integridad del hogar, y asegúrese el confort de su esposa é hijos, por todo resguardo razonable para el porvenir.
Se puede combinar la protección de la familia con la previsión para la vejez, en las Pólizas Tontinas Libérrimas de LA EQUITATIVA.

ESTANCIA
Rafango Stud
For sale a number of select Stallions 3 and 4 years old, of Shire, Yorkshin, Coaching, Hackney and Irish Hunter blood.
The above lot of horses can be recommended with entire confidence. For colour bone and action they cannot be surpassed to cross with the average mares of the country; to produce a saleable and generally useful horse for this country or for exportation.
The Rafango Stud of Hackney and other blood mares is probably the largest and most select in the Republic.
The Stud can always be seen by appointment. Apply
